

Converting Templates

Contributed by Administrator
Last Updated Saturday, 17 November 2007

By using a prebuilt template, one issue to consider is changing the default logo of the template to your own, having it done professionally will save time, and that will save money. Rather than try to figure it out just outsource that work done, and focus on the content in your website, updates to product information, tracking visitors, maintaining relationships with site visitors.